Get units for your unit.

Cover your employees for R1 a day.

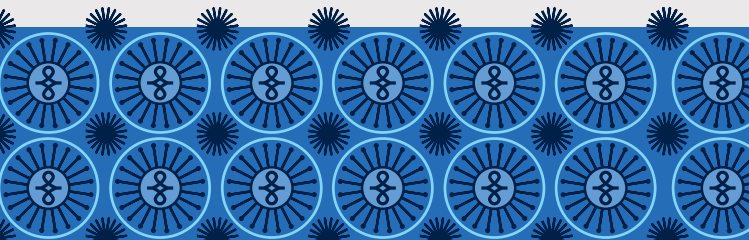

Losing an employee to death can have a significant impact on your business, but even more so on those they leave behind. Give your employees a proper send-off by taking care of their loved ones when they need help most.

Introducing Bryte Life's Group SME Funeral Policy – a convenient, easy and affordable way for small business owners to cover their employees.

How does it work?

With premiums starting from just R31, employees can be covered for up to R50,000 to help with the funeral arrangements and other costs.

Number of units	1 Unit	2 Units	3 Units	4 Units	5 Units
Value	R10,000	R20,000	R30,000	R40,000	R50,000
Over 10 employees	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Up to 10 employees	✓	✓	x	x	x

You choose the level of cover

Our cover comprises five units with each equating to R10,000 in cover. Employers can decide how much cover they want for each employee by choosing how many units they purchase.

Cover can also be extended to employees' family members, as well as extended family members.

- Employers with 10 or more employees may purchase up to five units (in other words a maximum of R50,000 cover per employee)
- Employers with less than 10 employees may purchase up to two units (in other words a maximum of R20,000 cover per employee)
- By presenting the Policy number linked to the policy, employees are able to add the family members within the same policy
- Should the main member pass on, the premiums will be covered for a period of 12 months for each additional family member added under the main member

Trust us to give you convenient and affordable funeral cover for those who help you grow your business.
